AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT. WASHINGTON THEATER.-This is the last night of the charming actress. Miss Susan Denin. A good bill is announced, and consists of the play of "Camille," and the comedictas, "Love in Humble Life" and "The Conscript," in all of which Miss Denin will perform a prominent part. Susan Denin's "Camille" is certainly an admirable piece of acting, and should be seen by all. FORD'S THEATER was again crowded last night. "The Naiad Queen" was performed, and there was an improvement over the first night, for the machinery worked more smoothly, and the brilliant scenic displays being consequently more effective. One or two nights more, and everything will be perfect. The performers were all that could be desired. "The Natad Queen" will be performed to-night again, and is well worth visiting.

CANTERBURY .- The Zanfretta Troupe tonight close one of the most successful engagements that have been been played in this city for a long while. Their parting performance will be equal to any that has preceded it. All the Canterbury company will also appear. Edeson will sing his new song, "A Glimpse at the War," and new dances will be introduced.

AN EXTENSIVE FORGERY .- Some time since a man named Pichle, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, came to this city and obtained a contract for one thousand cavalry horses to be delivered in thirty days to Captain Tompkins, A. Q. M., in this city. The horses were not delivered; but the contractor has been enabled to raise a heavy sum of money by obtaining forged receips for five hundred horses, which he hypothecated for nearly forty thousand dollars with a bank in Baltimore.

Levin S. Tarr, a clerk in Capt. Tomkin's office, has been arrested and committed to the Old Capitol, charged with the forgery of the name of Capt. T. to the receipts hypothecated

Tarr, it appears, went to Col. Baker and stated to him that he believed there was trouble ahead in the Quartermaster's office, and said he had filled out five receipts for one hundred horses each, (designating them as a part of the contract of Pichle with the Government,) but had not signed the name of Capt. Tompkins. He admitted that he had written the receipts on the official paper of the office, and with a great show of innocence expressed it as his conviction at the time that he was not acting improperly. Tarr gave as a reason for approaching Col. Baker that Pichle had suddenly disappeared. Col. Baker subsequently obtained the receipts hypothecated by Pichle, and arrested Tarr. The latter denied everything except writing the body of the receipt.

He was committed to the Old Capitol, when the room was searched. A number of signatures of Captain Tompkins's name were found, corresponding exactly with those appended to the forged receipts. Tarr was again brought to the office, and Colonel B. exhibited to him the signatures found in his room. He acknowledged to have written them for amusement. When placed side by side with the forgeries, and being sternly charged with the crime of forgery, he remarked that he would not answer any questions until he had consulted with counsel Colonel Baker promptly recognised his right to remain reticent, and remanded him Pichle, the greater criminal as he has received the greatest benefit, has not yet been arrested. It has also been discovered that he has in another instance, obtained nearly fifty thousand dollars on similar receipts. The banks, and not the Government, are the losers.

BEATING HIS WOMAN, AND WHAT GREW OUT OF IT.—On Tuesday night James Cava-nagh, who lives with a woman named Tissa Rose, on the Avenue, near Second street, beat her, and he was arrested by Officer Burns and taken before Justice Ferguson, who fined him $4.94. The following night, however, he attacked her again, threatening to kill her, and was arrested by Officers Slater and L. D. Milstead, and after being kept in the station all night, Thursday was taken before Justice Ferguson, when the charge assumed another character—Mrs. Rose and another witness testifying that Cavanagh had sold citizens' clothes to a soldier and induced him to offer himself as a substitute, but he was not passed by the board; that he also told soldiers belonging to the 14th N. Y. Artillery that he would get them citizens' clothes for a specified sum, that they might desert and go as substitutes, but they told him they were already in the service; that he went with four soldiers to a groggery, and, after getting them drunk, took them to a clothing store to buy clothes for them, and the salesman refused to sell them.

FIRE.-Last night, about 9% o'clock, the interior of the planing and sawing mills of McLean & Co., was discovered to be on fire. The mill is located on Thirteenth steeet, near the Second Ward station. The police managed to break in the door and secure the books, papers, and other valuable moveables. The firemen promptly answered the alarm, and in a few minutes the Franklin apparatus was on the ground. The police after removing the light property had closed the doors and windows, thus confining the fire; and as soon as the Franklin arrived one window was opened and the water was thrown through it upon the fire. The Perseverance, Columbia, Union, Anacostia engine companies, and Metropolitan Hook and Ladder company, and the Hibernia steam engine were also quickly on the spot. and rendered effective service. The fire, which at first threatened the entire mills as well as the lumber yards and frame buildings around, was very speedily extinguished, and the dam age was confined to the shop of Mr. Smith, in which was collected a quantity of work, such as sash, doors, blinds, &c., which was con-

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT .- A colored woman employed as a nurse by Mr. Wilson, of the firm of boteler & Wilson, who resides near Ninth and Ests., was Wednesday night terribly burned. It appears that on retiring to her room she sat up sometime sewing, placing the candle on the bed, and soon afterwards fell asleep, and by some means or other her clothes caught fire.

sumed; but the machinery was slightly injured. The fire was evidently the result of accident, and originated in the engine-room.

She was entirely crisped on one side of her body from head to foot. It is also believed that she was hurt inwardly from ishaling the flame. Dr. Toner was immediately called in, and humanely gave the best efforts of his medical skill for her relief, but without avail, as she died yesterday about noon.

OPERA IN WASHINGTON.-We learn with much pleasure that the distingished performer of music, Alex. Wolowski, has undertaken, at the solicitation and under the patronage of responsible parties, to organize a first-class troupe of opera singers for Washington, and visits New York to-day to complete the arrangements. The opera is expected to open here some time in September. The Professor will return in a short time to resume his engagements with his numerous pupils.

THE FIRST GRAND PIC-NIC of the Washington Sailmakers' Association will take place at the Seventh street Park on Monday, 31st instant. The proceeds will be devoted to exempting one of their number who was so lucky as to draw a prize in the draft. Tickets $1.

CORRECTION.—The Chronicle of this morning states that at the fire last evening the Franklin Fire Company was the first en the ground, and did good service, and that the other city companies were scon on the ground. This is so; but that part in relation to the steamer Hibernia doing splendid execution is not so, as their hose did not reach the fire within three hundred feet, and the whole time the angine was the state of the steamer the state of the state the engine was at work the water was wasting in
